Our Collections
The University of Toronto Libraries (UTL) system is the largest academic library in Canada. With an annual acquisition budget of $32 million, UTL’s research and special collections comprise over 12 million print volumes, 5.6 million microforms, over 17,000 journal subscriptions, and rich collections of manuscripts, films, and cartographic materials. The system provides access to more than 1.9 million electronic books, journals, and primary source materials. Wide-ranging collections, facilities, and staff expertise reflect the breadth of research and instructional programs at the University, and attract unique donations of books and manuscripts from around the world, which in turn draw scholars for research and graduate work. To access UTL collections, start on our homepage.

www.library.utoronto.ca

SUGGEST ITEMS FOR THE LIBRARIES’ COLLECTION
https://onesearch.library.utoronto.ca/suggest-title

EXTENDING ACCESS VIA GLOBAL PARTNERSHIPS
UTL’s Interlibrary Loan service draws upon a global network of resource sharing partners to bring in additional resources you need for your research. Register for RACER, fill out the Blank Request Form and we will do the rest. Request materials online or call the Resource Sharing department for assistance.

http://go.utlib.ca/racer | 416-978-6214

Ask Us!
YOUR LIAISON LIBRARIAN
Liaison librarians are your first point of contact for library services and resources to support your teaching and research.

http://resource.library.utoronto.ca/liaison/

QUESTIONS?
Ask us—by email, phone or live chat.

http://go.utlib.ca/help

STAY CONNECTED
FACULTY LISTSERV
We use this low-traffic listserv to share information about library services and events for faculty. Sign up via e-mail.

liaison.librarian@utoronto.ca

E-MAIL NOTICES FROM THE LIBRARIES
You can sign up to receive notices by e-mail regarding holds that have come in or books that are coming due.

http://go.utlib.ca/email

Key Contacts

Julie Hannaford
Deputy Chief Librarian
juilie.hannaford@utoronto.ca

Neil Romanosky
Associate Chief Librarian for Science Research and Information
neil.romanosky@utoronto.ca

Caitlin Tillman
Associate Chief Librarian for Collections and Materials Management caitlin.tillman@utoronto.ca

Loryl MacDonald
Acting Associate Librarian, Rare Books and Special Collections
loryl.macdonald@utoronto.ca

Sian Meikle
Director, Information Technology Services
sian.meikle@utoronto.ca

Stephanie Orfano
Acting Head, Copyright and Scholarly Communications
stephanie.orfano@utoronto.ca

Mariya Maistrovskaya
Institutional Repositories Librarian
mariya.maistrovskaya@utoronto.ca

Laure Perrier
Research Data Management Librarian
l.perrier@utoronto.ca

Heather Buchansky
Student Engagement Librarian
heather.buchansky@utoronto.ca

Directory of Liaison Librarians

http://resource.library.utoronto.ca/liaison/

Cover image: Faculty Reading Room, circa 1912. From the collections of the University of Toronto Archives, A65-0004-007.
Welcome to the University of Toronto! As a faculty member, you have access to a rich array of print and electronic resources from 44 libraries across 3 campuses.

Your Teaching

RESEARCH SUPPORT FOR YOUR STUDENTS
Start a conversation with your liaison librarian about librarian-built subject or course-specific online research guides that link to major databases, research tips and key library contacts.
http://resource.library.utoronto.ca/liaison/

TEACHING A FIRST YEAR COURSE? CONNECT YOUR STUDENTS TO THEIR PERSONAL LIBRARIAN
Each first-year undergraduate is assigned their very own personal librarian to help them navigate the information universe.
http://personal.library.utoronto.ca

DO YOU HAVE A COURSE WEBSITE IN PORTAL, THE UNIVERSITY’S LEARNING MANAGEMENT SYSTEM?
Each Portal course website has a Library Resources link listing discipline-specific research resources. You can ask your liaison librarian to customize this for you.

ENGAGE YOUR STUDENTS WITH PRIMARY SOURCES
Rare books and unique archival resources in a wide range of subject areas are available to enhance teaching, and provide students with hands-on experience with primary sources ranging from medieval manuscripts to the literary papers of Margaret Atwood, and from incunable editions of Aristotle and Euclid to Canadian printed ephemera. Librarians and archivists at the Thomas Fisher Rare Book Library can customize classes using primary sources to complement your syllabus.
fisher.library@utoronto.ca

ONLINE COURSE RESERVES
Submit your course syllabus to the library. We will make your readings available to students while respecting Canadian copyright provisions and existing U of T licensing agreements.
uoft.me/syllabuservice or syllabus.service@library.utoronto.ca

DO YOU NEED TO PLACE A PRINT BOOK ON RESERVE?
Email titles to us and your items will be directed to the appropriate library for reserve.
syllabus.service@library.utoronto.ca

REDUCE STUDENT TEXTBOOK COSTS
Did you know that the Libraries help instructors create zero-to-low cost courses using material that is openly licensed, public domain or within our e-resource collection?
syllabus.service@library.utoronto.ca

Your Research

MANAGE AND PRESERVE YOUR RESEARCH DATA
The Libraries have data management expertise. We can help you organize, visualize and share your data.
Our preservation experts can recommend archiving and preservation solutions that fit your needs.
rdm@library.utoronto.ca

LIBRARIAN CONSULTATIONS
Librarians provide one-on-one consultations to support all stages of your research.
http://go.utlib.ca/consultations

CREATE DIGITAL COLLECTIONS
The Libraries license and support a number of tools to enable faculty to produce and host online collections of digital artifacts.
collections@library.utoronto.ca

HELP WITH SYSTEMATIC AND SCOPING REVIEWS
Librarians can assist with your protocol, help with search strategies and search methods, and review your final manuscript.
research.connect@utoronto.ca

COLLECT YOUR RESEARCH METRICS
Librarians can help you compile your personal research metrics and advise you on best practices.
https://onesearch.library.utoronto.ca/copyright/research-impact

STATISTICAL SUPPORT
Map & Data Library staff can provide technical support for statistical analysis and access to specialized statistical software.
https://mdl.library.utoronto.ca

Your Publishing

HELP FOR AUTHORS
The Scholarly Communications & Copyright Office helps faculty authors secure publishing agreements that maximize open distribution.
copyright@library.utoronto.ca

DISTRIBUTE YOUR SCHOLARSHIP
The Libraries’ specialists can help you upload your work to TSpace, U of T’s open access research repository, ensuring that your work is accessible to all.
The prioritized indexing of TSpace content by Google and other search engines improves visibility and citation impact—more people will read your work.
tspace@library.utoronto.ca

LICENSES AND PERMISSIONS
Librarians can advise you on what is permissible under Canadian copyright law for both educational and research purposes.
copyright@library.utoronto.ca

COMPLY WITH FUNDING AGENCIES’ OPEN ACCESS REQUIREMENTS
Librarians can help you comply with the open access requirements of Canadian and international funding agencies.
open.access@library.utoronto.ca

PARTNER WITH A LIBRARIAN ON STUDENT RESEARCH ASSIGNMENT DESIGN
Evidence shows that students benefit from detailed research guidelines, lists of useful databases, library research guides and librarian contact information. Ask your liaison librarian for support in these areas.

INVITE A LIBRARIAN TO YOUR CLASS
Librarian class visits—in-person or virtual—introduce students to key resources, tools and shortcuts to save time and improve results.